

Director of Children, Youth and Family Ministry

We are a passionate and forward-moving church with a vision to Change Church by meeting the world as it is today. Today, the world is moving. Fast! It is a world that is not limited to traditional in-person Sunday morning services, but it also includes a robust online community. We strive to meet each and every person where they are at in creative, innovative, and technological ways.

The second part of our vision is to Create Relationship with Jesus and our community, a relationship that goes beyond Sundays and the church walls. One of our primary focus is to serve; to serve our church families, neighbors, and community.

You are a person who loves Jesus! You have a big heart for youth and kids. You are passionate about fostering the intersection of the two. You embrace the understanding that change and innovation is imperative in order to meet people where they are today, especially the youth and kids. In collaboration with Pastor Joe and the staff, you will contribute to the vision of The Neighborhood Church to help people to fall in love with church all over again as they develop their relationship with Christ.

What you'll do...

- Work with the high-capacity leaders to develop and implement ministry plans for the children and youth and evaluate on a 30, 60, 90 day routine.
- Plan amazing faith building events, activities and trips to engage children and youth.
- Keep in contact with parents of the children and youth.
- Build and train a great group of volunteers for the children and youth programs.
- Work on special project to help develop dedicated role for Director of Children and Family Ministry.

You're on another level if...

- You are active on TikTok, Instagram, SnapChat and YouTube.

- Backyard games and goofy singing and dancing is in your bag of tricks.
- You can herd cats - You have the ability to manage chaos among children and youth.
- A flexible approach to changing priorities and environment, that helps deepen your relationship with God through the gift of grace.

Let's talk about your mad skills...I mean spirit-led gifts.

- Creative Skills: A demonstrated ability to invent inspiring ideas for branding, campaigns and messages that drive high levels of engagement.
- Analytical Skills: A mind hard-wired to analyze trends, stay current, and mine the data to determine fresh and effective approaches to ministry in the digital space.
- Interpersonal Skills: A humble confidence that inspires trust across the church and teams while providing clarity and direction.
- Innovative Skills: Ability to be at the front of the changing church culture and drive forward pilot programs and ideas with enthusiasm, inspiring others to act and participate

Ephesians 2:10

For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.
